DRI Employment and Labor Law Committee Seminar

Brian Leinhauser, Stephen Rhoads, and Laurie Fiore attended and participated in the DRI Employment and Labor Law Committee Seminar in New Orleans in May 2023. The conference had speakers from around the country providing insight into recent Supreme Court rulings, trends in litigation, and developments in statutory law. Brian led breakout discussion groups addressing how to deal with no hold barred litigation tactic from opposing counsel and the pitfalls to avoid when dealing with pro se litigants.

MacMain Leinhauser Welcomes Two New Lawyers In August

Recent law school graduates Maeve Bain and Jamison MacMain will be joining the firm as lawyers-to-be in August after they complete the bar exam in late July.

Maeve is a recent graduate of Widener's Delaware School of Law where she participated in the Judicial Externship Program, working for The Honorable Anthony D. Scanlon in the Criminal Division of the Delaware County Court of Common Pleas. She was also a member of the Women's Law Caucus, First Generation Law Student Association, and the Brehon Law Society. Maeve is a 2020 graduate of West Chester University with Bachelor of Arts in History, focusing on Early European Studies. Beginning in college and continuing into her first year of law school, Maeve worked in the Honors Internship at the Federal Bureau of Investigation, Philadelphia Field Office, working in the White-collar Crime Branch and Office of Chief Division Counsel. Maeve joined MacMain Leinhauser as a Law Clerk in December 2022.

Jamison, who has worked as a law clerk with the firm since May of 2021, is a recent graduate of Widener's Delaware School of Law where he served as Staff Editor for The Widener Law Review and was appointed to the Delaware Law Honor Council, a four-student board for reviewing Code of Conduct violations. Jamison is a 2017 graduate of Elizabethtown College where he earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and a minor in Political Science and was inducted into Phi Alpha Theta - the National History Honor Society. Jamison played varsity soccer at E-town where he captained the Blue Jays Men's Soccer team to the NCAA Round of 32 in the 2016 National Playoffs. Prior to attending law school, Jamison coached the Eastern University Men's Soccer team to the 2018 NCAA Sweet 16 as an Assistant Coach/Director of Operations, was a Staff Coach for Penn Fusion Soccer Academy for several years and served as the JV coach at Malvern Preparatory School in the fall of 2017.

MacMain Leinhauser Welcomes Two Summer Law Clerks

The firm welcomed two law students – Kaitlyn Trainor and Matthew Flaherty-Gahagan - as law clerks this summer.

Kaitlyn just completed her first year at Widener's Delaware School of Law where she is a member of the Women's Law Caucus, First Generation Law Student Association, and the Brehon Law Society.

Kaitlyn is an honors graduate of Penn State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Criminology and minor in History.

Matthew also just completed his first year at Widener's Delaware School of Law where he is a member of the First Generation Law Student Association. Matthew is an honors graduate of West Chester University with a double major in Political Science and Government with a minor in Law. While a student at WCU, Matthew worked at WCUR 91.7 FM Radio as an Events and Promotions Director.

MacMain and Ambrose Win Defense Verdict in Police Liability Case

David MacMain and Tricia Ambrose won a complete defense verdict in a §1983 claim for two officers accused of unlawful entry, excessive force and several state tort claims. The case was tried in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania before the Honorable John Gallagher and spanned 7 days including jury selection. The jury returned a verdict in just under 2 hours.
